

Q1. Highlight the causes of de-industrialization during British colonial rule in India. How did these policies contribute to the weakening of the Indian economy? (10 Marks, 150 Words)

Q2. A right combination of spirit and structure is integral to ethical corporate governance. Discuss. (10 marks, 150 words)

Q3. How can civil servants balance democratic values of proactive disclosure of information while maintaining the need of confidentiality and discretion in civil services. (10 marks, 150 words)

Q4. Ethics is the first line of defense against corruption, while rules and law implementation are merely remedial and post facto in nature. Elaborate. (15 marks, 250 words)

Q5. Discuss the major land reforms introduced by the British colonial administration in India. To what extent did these reforms benefit the Indian peasantry? (15 Marks, 250 Words)