

Q1. Examine the role of social reform movements in challenging and eradicating the caste system during British colonial rule in India. (10 Marks, 150 Words)

Q2. Discuss the role Gopal Krishna Gokhale in promoting socio-economic reforms and his influence on subsequent leaders. (10 marks, 150 words)

Q3. "Impartiality is not just a value, it is a duty for those who serve the public. As public servants, we must always strive to put aside our personal biases and serve the interests of all people equally." Substantiate. (10 marks, 150 words)

Q4. Analyze the strategies employed by the extremists and the significance of their ideology in shaping the anti-colonial struggle in India. (15 marks, 250 words)

Q5. Probity, prudence and propriety are the three pillars of effective utilization of public funds. Discuss. (15 Marks, 250 Words)