

INDIAN CLIMATE

- Tropical as well as subtropical.
- Tropic of Cancer passes through 08 states
- Also called as Monsoonal climate.
- It is seasonal in nature.

Factors influencing Indian Climate:

Latitudinal location Distance from sea
The Himalayans Physiography
Monsoonal winds Jet Streams
Tropical cyclones & western disturbances
El-Nino, La-Nina, ENSO

Indian Monsoon

- Onset
- Break
- Retreating monsoon

Draw diagram below during explanation

Factors responsible for South-west Monsoon:

- ITCZ
- Permanent high-pressure cell in South Indian Ocean.
- Tibetan plateau intense heating.
- Himalayas as topographical barrier.
- Sub-tropical westerly & tropical easterly jet streams.

Western
Disturbances → → → will be explained
in the class