

MAINS MASTER PROGRAM (MMP) 2024
MODERN INDIA - 3

- 31. Discuss the factors behind the surge of strong Indian discontent after the First World War.
- 32. The Khilafat issue was a sugar-coated poison pill. Discuss critically.
- 33. The withdrawal of the non-cooperation movement was not only a disaster, it was also a deliberate one. Critically examine.
- 34. Discuss the circumstances responsible for drafting of the Nehru Report. Examine its significance for the national movement.
- 35. Throw light on the post CDM strategic debate within the congress. What was its significance?
- 36. Discuss the significance of 28 months of congress rule following the 1937 provincial elections.
- 37. The Second World War acted as a turning point in the national movement. Examine.
- 38. Compare and contrast the August offer and the Cripps proposal.
- 39. With independence as a foregone conclusion, the nationalist struggle turned inwards. Examine this statement in the context of the constitutional deadlock between the congress and Muslim league.
- 40. The winter of 1945-46 was a momentous time in Indian history. Discuss.
- 41. The Cabinet Mission plan was the last opportunity to preserve Indian unity. In the context of this statement, explain the evolution of the Congress-League relationship.
- 42. Mahatma Gandhi wrote in 1928 to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru: "the differences between you and me appear to be so vast and radical that there seems to be no meeting ground between us." Expand.